

TAG – Teen Advisory Group
Friday, September 17
4:30-5:30

Agenda

- Staff Introductions
- What our library needs and how important your input and ideas are – I need your help!
 - What kinds of books should we purchase for the library?
 - We are always looking to improve our teen area. I need your ideas for improving the space.
 - We are offering more video games and video gaming events. What are your ideas?
 - I need ideas for fun library program for teens
 - I would love for all members of TAG to volunteer at the library and help with library events
 - Writing book reviews that we can post on social media
 - Writing cards for nursing homes, our homebound patrons, veterans, etc.
 - Making blankets for animal shelters, etc.
- Human Bingo
- Rules, Purpose, Mission Statement and Goals?
- Our group's name – Teen Advisory Group?
- Interest inventory
- Follow us on IG!
- Brainstorming Session
 - Rules?
 - You have to commit to attending all (or most of) the sessions to be considered a member of TAG

- You must actively participate in some form (it's ok if you don't like to talk a lot; there are lots of ways to participate)
- Mission statement (What's that?)
 - "To make the library a better, more appealing place for young adults who want and/or need to study, meet and recreate"
 - "To increase awareness of the library in the community"
 - "To encourage teens' active participation in Library services through volunteering and peer mentoring and to strengthen leadership skills"
- Volunteer ideas
- Social Media Challenges
- Upcoming Programs:
 - Cosplay – Oct. 21, 6-7:30 pm
 - Halloween After Hours - Oct. 29, 7 – 8:30 pm
- Next meeting – Friday, Nov. 19, 4:30 – 5:30 pm
 - talk more about our name, goals, and mission statement and create an agreement form for all members to sign
 - winter programming ideas
 - what would you like to add to November's agenda?